Abbots Bromley (aka Bagots Bromley*)* [Pirehill] (St Nicholas) {Vicarage}

In 1641 Abbots Bromley was in the patronage of (the lord of the manor) William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert K.B. 1609-1678. During the intrusion (1644/60) Paget was sequestered. In 1660 he was restored as patron. In 1604 the vicarage was valued at £16. In 1646 the ministerial salary of £26/13/0 pa was to be augmented by £50. In Jan 1661.2 a clerical subsidy of XXX was paid. In 1665 the parish of three townships - Abbots Bromley (aka Pagets Bromley), Bagots Bromley and Bromley Hurst - comprised three simple constablewicks.

Parish History

(1665) Abbots Bromley (aka Bagots Bromley*)* [Pirehill] (St Nicholas) was a vicarage in the patronage of (the lord of the manor) William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert K.B. 1609-1678. He had presented Nathaniel Mott c1628-1699* who was instituted vicar on 27 Apr 1665. The parish of three townships - Abbots Bromley (aka Pagets Bromley), Bagots Bromley and Bromley Hurst - comprised three simple constablewicks.

(1848) BROMLEY, ABBOTS (St. Nicholas), a parish, in the union of Uttoxeter, S. division of the hundred of Pirehill, N. division of the county of Stafford, 12½ miles (E.) from Stafford, and 130 (N. W. by N.) from London; containing 1508 inhabitants. This place is bounded on the south-west by the river Blythe, and derives its distinguishing name from a Benedictine monastery founded at Blythebury, in the neighbourhood, in the latter part of the reign of Henry I., or the beginning of that of Stephen, by Hugh Mavesyn, and dedicated to St. Giles. The parish comprises 9392a. 17p., and contains the manor of Abbots or Paget's Bromley, the property of the Marquess of Anglesey; the manor of Bagots-Bromley, the ancient possession of the Bagot family, of Blithfield Hall, to whom it belonged prior to the Conquest; the manor of Bromley-Park, consisting of upwards of 900 acres, belonging to the Earl of Dartmouth; and the liberty of Bromley-Hurst. The trade is principally in malt, which is sold to some extent. The market here has been discontinued for many years: the market-house is an ancient building covered with shingles. The fairs are on March 11th, May 22nd, and September 4th, and are chiefly for cattle. The turnpikeroad from Uttoxeter to Lichfield passes through the village, which is six miles distant from the former, and twelve from the latter place. The living is a discharged vicarage, valued in the king's books at £5. 1. 8.; net income, about £155; patron and impropriator, the Marquess of Anglesey. The church is an ancient structure, partly in the decorated and partly in the later English style, with a Norman entrance; it has undergone considerable repairs, and been much modernised. There is a place of worship for Independents. A free school was founded in 1606, by Richard Clarke, who left £300 to purchase land for its endowment; the annual income is £20. An hospital was founded in 1702, by Lambard Bagot, Esq., who bequeathed £800 for its erection and endowment, for six aged men, three of this parish, and one from each of the parishes of Yoxhall, Hanbury, and Tatenhill; the income was augmented by Charles Bagot, Esq., and a matron has been added, who, as well as each of the inmates, receives a stipend of £10 per annum. [A Topographical Dictionary of England (1848)]

(1851) the Marquis of Anglesey has the advowson of the vicarage ... The Church (St. Nicholas,) is a large handsome Gothic fabric, nearly in the centre of the town, and is a vicarage, valued in K.B. at £5/1/8, and now at £225, in the incumbency of the Rev. J. M. Lowe, MA., for whom a neat Vicarage House was erected in 1850-1, towards which the Diocesan Society gave £200. The vicarage is endowed with 39a 2r 39p of land at Tappenhurst, left by Richard Crosse, in 1639. The fine architectural character of the church was much injured by repairs in the Italian style about 1690. [WHITE (1851)]

Anthony Huxley (vicar of Abbots Bromley) c1595-1671
Huxley, born about 1595, was second son of Ralph Huxley of Sidwall Hall, Cheshire c1565-.... He studied at Cambridge where in Michs 1614 he matriculated sizar from Magdalene College. At Cambridge he graduated B.A. in 1618.9 (M.A. 1630). His M.A. was incorporated at Oxford on 13 Jul ?1634. On 18 Sep 1619 he was ordained deacon and on 23 Sep 1627 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield. On 22 Jan 1633.4 after presentation by William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert K.B. 1609-1678 he was instituted vicar of Abbots Bromley and on 5 Feb 1643.4 continued in office as compliant minister. On 10 Jul 1646 he was with the royal garrison at Lichfield on its surrender. In Nov 1646 he refused to appear before the Committee for plundered ministers to answer allegations made against him by his parishioners. He was sequestered by the Committee on 10 Dec 1646 "on the ground that he had deserted his cure and betaken himself to the forces raised against parliament". On 15 Mar 1646.7 he was to be evicted from the vicarage house and on 11 Apr 1647 his wife Hanna was allowed a fifth. On 3 Nov 1653 he was appointed by Sir Edward Coke 1st Baronet ?1616-1669 as compliant minister of Longford, Derbys where in early Jun 1660 he continued as de jure vicar. By An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) he may have been restored in office as vicar of Abbots Bromley and would thus have displaced a minister if one was in office. However in Jan 1661.2 Nathaniel Mott c1628-1699 QV paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0. By later that year (probably before 24 Aug 1662) Huxley was in office but resigned in favour of Mott before 27 Apr 1665. Still in office at Longford he died, aged about 76, and was buried there on 30 Sep 1671. His will made on 25 Oct 1671 was proved under Lichfield on 20 Nov 1671. His personalty was valued at £30/12/6 which included "his whole study of bookes £6/0/6"

Ordained priest by Bishop Griffith of St Asaph, 10 March 1661. Aged 59 in 1693 (Lichfield RO, B/V/1/89A).
James Clerke, succeeded his father in 1659. He was suspended for a year in 1698 for having, according to his own confession, celebrated a clandestine marriage at the "Bull in the Barn", a public-house in Frankwell, Shrewsbury, which stood where Cadogan House now is. There is still a small pillar, with a brass plate, marking the site of the well belonging to the old inn.

John Sammon (?presbyterian minister of Abbots Bromley) e1616-....

Sammon, born perhaps about 1616, is of unknown parentage. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by about 10 Dec 1646 when he was appointed by the Committee for plundered ministers after approval by the Westminster assembly as ?presbyterian minister of Abbots Bromley. Here he received an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of £26/13/0. A successor William Beeby c1619-.... was in office about Mar 1649. No further record has been discovered.

William Beeby (?presbyterian minister of Abbots Bromley, Staffs) e1619-....
Beeby, born perhaps about 1619, is of unknown parentage. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by about Mar 1649 when he was appointed ?presbyterian minister of Abbots Bromley vicarage. Here he received an augmentation of £50 pa to his annual salary of £26/13/0 pa. He was still in office on 25 Dec 1649. A successor William Bromesgrove 1628-1664 was in office in 1652. No further record has been discovered.

William Bromesgrove (presbyterian minister of Weston-upon-Trent) 1628-1664 RA7
Bromesgrove, born in Tean in Checkley and christened on 8 Jul 1628 at Checkley, was a son of Walter Bromesgrove M.A. (stipendiary curate of Cheadle) ?1603-?1679. He studied at Cambridge where on 4 Jul 1644 he was a student at Christ's College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. He was presumably qualified to be a presbyterian clergyman by 1652 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of Abbots Bromley and was still there in 1655. On 31 Dec 1658 after nomination by the Trustees for maintenance (about 22 Dec) he was approved by the Commission for approbation of public preachers as presbyterian minister of Weston-upon-Trent rectory. He may have received an augmentation to his salary of £30. He was still in office on 11 Jan 1659.60. On 9 Aug 1660 he was ordained deacon and priest by Thomas Fulwar Ardfert pro Lichfield. If he continued in office after 13 Sep 1660 then, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers, he may have continued here as de jure rector. On 7 Aug 1662 - then in office as stipendiary curate of Youlgrave, Derbys - he subscribed to the Act of uniformiy. On 15 Jan 1662.3 after presentation by William Cavendish 3rd Earl of Devonshire 1617-1684 he was instituted vicar of Youlgrave. The next day he was also appointed schoolmaster. Still in office he died, aged 36, and was buried on 29 May 1664 at Youlgrave. Bromesgrove married about 1651 to Mary by whom he had 3 sons and 1 daughter.

Nathaniel Mott M.A. (vicar of Abbots Bromley) c1628-1699 RA27/65.85
Mott, born about 1628, was a son of Henry Mott of Lichfield "gentleman" c1593-a1670 and Elizabeth. He studied at Oxford where in 1648 he was a student at New Inn Hall. At Oxford he graduated B.A. on 1 Jun 1649 (M.A., 18 Nov 1652). In 1649 he was elected a fellow of University College. He was presumably qualified as a presbyterian clergyman before 31 Mar 1652 when he was in office as presbyterian minister of Longdon and the Committee for the reformation of the universities granted him an augmentation of £16/6/8 to his annual salary of £55. In 1658.9 he certified the fitness of candidates for the ministry. In early Jun 1660 he continued here as de jure vicar but, by An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660), was displaced from office when Hugh Humphreys c1610-1693 QV was restored here. Next he was briefly in office as de facto vicar of Abbots Bromley. In Jan 1661.2 he paid a clerical subsidy of 10/0 but, since he was not anglicanly ordained, he must shortly afterwards have been disqualified from office. On 19 Dec 1662 he was ordained deacon and on 21 Dec 1662 ordained priest (both) by Lichfield and the same month licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. On 27 Apr 1665 after presentation by (the lord of the manor) William Paget 6th Baron Paget of Beaudesert K.B. 1609-1678 he was instituted vicar of Abbots Bromley and inducted there on 7 May. That year he certified the hearth tax for Abbots Bromley, Bagots Bromley and Bromley Hurst constablewicks and was assessed on two hearths at Abbots Bromley. He resigned Abbots Bromley before 28 Jul 1668 when after probable presentation by (the lord of the manor) Sir Theophilus Biddulph of Elmhurst in Lichfield 1st Baronet c1614-1683 he was instituted vicar of Lapley and inducted there on 31 Jul. In office at Lapley he died, aged about 71, and was buried there on 14 Apr 1699. His will made on 20 Jan 1698.9 was proved under Lichfield on 12 Dec 1699. His personalty was valued at £35/7/6. Mott married on 24 Nov 1653 at Stafford St Mary to Mary Abberley daughter of Walter Abberley of Stafford "gentleman" c1586-.... by whom he had 4 sons and 1 daughter. His son John Mott 1671-1737 succeded him as vicar of Lapley.

In the church of Uttoxeter, Staffordshire, is a memorial tablet in the chancel to the Reverend George Malbon, the friend of Samuel Bentley. A poem written by him on the River Dove perpetuates the memory of his tutor: [INTERNET]

The cell where the bank slow doth bend
Was Malbon, the learned and the sage;
My teacher, Mecaenas and friend,
With pleasantry tempered with age.
Flow tears the dear urn to bedew;
Flow elegy mournfully tuned;
Oh! Could I those chords wake anew,
When Milton his Lycidas mourned.
